As per the Texas Business and Commerce Code, Section 9.501, effective July 1,2001 Financing Statements (UCC) will no longer be filed in the County Clerk's Real Property Records. They will need to be filed with the Secretary of State's Office. This does not affect Financing Statements filed in the County Clerk's Real Property Records. The 82nd Legislature amended §9.801 of the UCC prescribing new forms to be used effective July 1, 2013 with a grace period of 30 days (new forms must be used beginning August 1, 2013).
