Request for Tax Status

Pursuant to Texas Property Tax Code §34.015, the Galveston County Tax Office has received a written request for Certificate of Eligibility to purchase real property at a Galveston County Sheriff Sale from individuals listed on the attached application.. This listing also includes the addresses or legal descriptions of property or properties owned in whole or part by the applicant.

Pursuant to §34.015(d), please confirm the status of any delinquent ad valorem taxes receivable/due from any of the names or addresses listed on the Application to your entity no later than 10 days from the date of this request.

Failure to report delinquencies could result in a loss of revenue to your jurisdiction as we will issue the Certificate noting "no known or reported delinquent ad valorem taxes" owed by the person unless you indicate otherwise. Should a delinquency exist under any of the names or addresses listed, we will notify the Applicant and seek proof of payment in advance of issuing the Certificate of Eligibility. Please, therefore, include statement(s) reflecting the amount of taxes, penalties and interest due for each along with this page, signed by the person conducting the research.

This page and statement(s) of taxes due may be returned via facsimile at (409) 766-2479 or to the electronic mail address shown below. Thank you for assisting with this request.
